Anti-Ragging Regulations:

Ragging is strictly prohibited and considered a punishable offense. The All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) has enacted regulations to address this issue, as outlined in the "AICTE Approved Technical Institute Vide No.37-3/Legal/AICTE/2009 Dated:1-7-2009."

Ragging is defined as any conduct by a student or students, whether spoken or done, that is perceived as rude, disruptive, or harmful to a fresher or any other student. This includes participating in rowdy or indiscipline activities that may cause annoyance, hardship, psychological harm, or fear to a fresher or another student. Such actions may be undertaken with or without the intent of asserting superiority or deriving pleasure.

The Anti-Ragging committee is empowered to determine the nature and gravity of the offense and may impose one or more of the following punishments on those found guilty:

1. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
2. Withholding or withdrawing scholarships, fellowships, or other benefits.
3. Debarring from appearing in any tests, examinations, or other evaluation processes.
4. Withholding of results.
5. Debarring from representing the institute in any regional, national, or international event, tournament, or youth festival.
6. Suspension from the hostel.
7. Cancellation of admission.
8. Rustication from the institute for a period ranging from one to six semesters.
9. Expulsion from the institute and consequent debarring from admission to any other institute for a specified period.

In cases where the individuals responsible for committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment. Students are advised to consult the anti-ragging committee in case of emergencies.
